

Media Release

LuAnne Holeva

Wayne County Soil & Water Conservation District

823 South Round Barn Road

Richmond, IN 47374

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

August 13, 2025

Wayne County Soil and Water Conservation District receives a grant from Whitewater Valley REMC Community Trust

Liberty, IN – Wayne County Soil and Water Conservation District has been awarded a grant of $1,200 from Whitewater Valley REMC Community Trust. The grant provides funds for the organization's Conservation Days which is an educational event for 3rd/4th grade students to learn about agriculture, natural resources, safety, and more.

LuAnne Holeva, on behalf of Wayne County Soil and Water Conservation District, accepted the grant from Whitewater Valley REMC Community Trust trustees Maya Hughes, Sara Jane Moyer, and Gary Stokes on Tuesday August 12, 2025.

In addition to this grant, Whitewater Valley REMC Community Trust recently awarded grants to eight other local not-for-profit organizations.

The Whitewater Valley REMC Community Trust, Inc. trustees meet quarterly on the fourth Tuesday of January, April, July, and October to review applications for grants. Applications and information about the program can be found at www.wvvremc.com under Member Services.

Whitewater Valley REMC, located in Liberty, Indiana, is an electric utility cooperative serving over 10,000 members in Randolph, Wayne, Union, Fayette, Franklin, and Dearborn counties and maintains over 1,800 miles of line. For more information about the cooperative visit www.wvvremc.com.